I. Call to Order	Rosenthal called the meeting to order at 4:36pm
II. Approval: Minutes	- CAC member requests the following changes (shared via email in their absence): - Section starting with "Deaf events" should instead say "Deaf Activities of Southern Oregon (DASO)" events - Events are being held twice a month, not every other week, and they are typically held on Saturdays due to community preference. - The Deaf and Hard of Hearing Community in the next bullet should instead read Deaf Activities of Southern Oregon - CAC members moved, seconded, and unanimously voted to approve with updates	Make changes to September meeting minutes per Danica's feedback
III. Word on the Street - ALL	- OHSU Cancer center staff shared they have a series of cancer trainings on lung cancer and tobacco cessation - Trainings are free for THWs - OSU is holding a Native American Heritage Celebration in celebration of Naïve American Heritage Month. - United Spinal Association of America is making a resource guide and shared a list of links, it will be shared with CAC	Info shared will be emailed to CAC
IV. CareOregon/JCC updates	Lind gave an update on federal level changes to Medicaid that are currently known

	Governor has pulled together a round table of Key leaders to talk through how we might revise Medicaid for Oregon and how do we bring it back into a benefit that can be sustained long term.
V. OHA SHIP Presentation	See included presentation slides
VI. OHA updates Belle Shepherd (OHA)	See included presentation slides
VII. CAC Term Updates	- Update on CAC Chair term - CAC term is 3 years, but the BOD terms are 4 years - Newton still has one more year on his term with the JCC BOD - Newton will still move down from being the chair of the CAC at the end of this year - He will stay on the JCC BOD, and on the CAC for 2026 as a standard voting member, no chair position - The new chair and vice-chair will begin in 2026 - Voting for new vice-chair, beginning in January 2026 was completed. - One member was nominated and interested in the position - Alexander was nominated and interested in the position - CAC voted unanimously to approve Alexander as the new CAC vice-chair. - Voting on new member will take place in January pending the applicant's desire to move forward with formal CAC membership	Email absent CAC member that vote was taken and they will be the new vice-chair beginning January 2026.
